VILLAGE OF COBDEN

By-Law No. 958

A By-Law to Prohibit and regulate the fouling and obstructing of streets.

WHEREAS Sec. 486 of the Municipal Act, R. S. O. 1950, empowers councils of Municipalities to enact by-laws respecting the matters hereinafter referred to.

THEREFORE be it enacted and the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Village of Cobden enacts as follows:-

1. No person, or Corporation shall throw, place or deposit any filth, dirt, glass, handbills, paper or other rubbish or refuse, or the carcass of any animal on any street or bridge of the Village.
- 2: No person or Corporation shall obstruct, encumber, injure or foul up any street or bridge of the Corporation, or obstruct any ditches or culverts upon streets.
- 3: No person or Corporation shall build or maintain any fence, firewood or other structure or obstacle on any street or bridge within the Village which shall obstruct or interfere with public travel on it; and in the event of the contravention the Council may require the person or Corporation by whom the same are or were built, maintained, placed or deposited, to remove the same.
- 4: No doorsteps, porches or other erections or things shall project into or over any street or bridge, and in the event of any contravention, the Council may require the owner or occupant of the land in connection with which they exist, to remove same.

5: Nothing in this by-law shall prohibit or prevent the Council or its agents, servants, or workmen, from regulating or controlling traffic by means of obstructions or other means as may be required from time to time for any proper purpose, nor from placing in any street, any materials for use in construction or repair of streets and bridges.

6: When an offender under this by-law is in default in removing any structure or obstruction, after being required so to remove same, the Council may cause such structure or obstruction to be removed and recover the expense incurred in doing so by action, or the same may be recovered in like manner as Municipal taxes.

7: Any person convicted of a breach of any of the provisions of this by-law shall forfeit and pay at the discretion of the convicting Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars exclusive of costs and such costs as the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may impose and the said Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may by his conviction, order and adjudge that in default of payment of such penalty imposed by him and costs, if the conviction is made with costs, forthwith or within a limited time, such penalty and costs, if any, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the Offender and if sufficient distress cannot be found, that the Offender be imprisoned in the common goal of the County of Renfrew with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding twenty-one days, unless the said penalty and costs, if any, including the costs of the said distress and of the committal and conveying of the Offender are sooner paid.

ENACTED this 3 day of May 1954.
