

courteous and obliging, ever willing and ready to give information and assistance in all matters pertaining to the office; and whereas the district at large has lost one of its most efficient servants, a person who always had the best interests of the community at heart, and who at the time of her demise held a number of other positions of trust; therefore the members of this Council in Council assembled desire to place on record their keen sorrow for the loss that the community has sustained and also their deepest sympathy with the members of the deceased's family in this their sad hour of bereavement.

The Council then adjourned to meet again on the last Saturday in March next at 10 o'clock A.M.
