Feb 20/74

A special meeting was held on February 20, 1974 to meet with Mr. Sooley, County Planner, Mr. Bruce Mc Nab, Ministry of Transportation & Communications and Mr. Shulista, Chairman of the ^{County} Planning Committee.

Mr. Mc Nab explained the trouble in other municipalities with mobile homes also the advantages of some of the mobile home parks. He advised that a foundation clause could be put into the building by-law # 905 but that zoning was the only solution to the use of the land.

Mr. Mc Nab advised that he would be in touch with our solicitor, Mr. A. A. Mc Nab to revise the present by-law to include mobile homes.

Mr. Shulista thanked Council for including him in this informative meeting as he represented the Planning Committee of Renfrew County.

Mr. Swinniss from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications was present when Council opened tenders for a 5 ton truck, snowplow and wing and sway grader. Three tenders were received.

Mr. Swinniss advised that Council accept the tender of Donohue Motors.

Meeting was adjourned.
